

Things to do for the next step:

1. Think about a way to do KL-Divergence
2. Think about statistical significance of your measurements